OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 20 March 1962

25X1 1. ([REDACTED] - GLC) John Martini, on the staff of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, called to say the Committee was sending to GPO for printing a "Summary Analysis of the President's Proposal for Reform of the Federal Statutory Salary System. (H.R. 10480)." Arrangements have been made directly with GPO for multiple copies of this document.

25X1 2. [REDACTED] Personnel, called to say 25X1
Mr. Paul Theis, Publications Director of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, called the Office of Personnel and requested 25X1 information on [REDACTED] a former Agency employee. I called 25X1
Mr. Theis and advised him [REDACTED] had worked for the Agency only a short time and decided that she did not wish to work under the security restrictions involved in the Agency and, since she had not been with the Agency long enough to receive a fitness report, I could not comment in detail on her performance in the position to which she was assigned.

25X1 3. [REDACTED] Returned to Representative Albert H. 25X1
Quie the book and pamphlets sent to him by his Soviet correspondent and 25X1 indicated a definite interest in one book on [REDACTED] I suggested that the 25X1

7. [] - GLC) Left with Robert Smart three copies of the information sheets on General Carter and offered to supply additional copies if he desired them.

8. [] - JGO) Delivered to Bill Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee, 25 copies of General Marshall S. Carter's biography, for use by the Committee.

9. [] - JSW) Captain Stevens telephoned to alert us to a query they had received from Representative Gerald R. Ford, Jr. Stevens is the Aide to General Lemnitzer who has accompanied McNamara and Lemnitzer to the special briefings of various congressional committees on the RS-70 and OXCART. Apparently Mr. Ford wanted advice on what he could say publicly to give some reassurances. Since this conversation was by telephone, it was by no means completely clear what Ford wished to say. In any event, Ford had been advised that DOD could not give him any ok on a statement since this was a matter for CIA.
